

A Study of New Religious Thought and Movements in Japan

Dissertation Submitted to Jawaharlal Nehru University
In Partial Fulfilment of the Requirements
For the Award of the Degree of Master of Philosophy

PUNEETA KALA

Centre for East Asian Studies
School of International Studies
Jawaharlal Nehru university
New Delhi - 110067, India
1993

Contents

	pages
Preface	i - iii
Acknowledgements	iv
Chapter I New Religions of Japan - An Introduction	1 - 17
Chapter II Causes for Emergence of New Religions	18 - 40
Chapter III Some Representative New Religions - a) Tenrikyo b) Omoto c) Tensho Kotai Jingukyo d) Sokagakkai	41 - 54
Conclusion	55 - 62
Bibliography	63 - 67